

Press ReleaseTUSA P.C. AND GISKAN SOLOTAROFF ANDERSON & STEWART LLP
FILE A COMPLAINT AGAINST NCO FINANCIAL, JPMORGAN CHASE, FORSTER & GARBUS LLP AND OTHERS ALLEGING UNLAWFUL DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES

January 16, 2013.

On December 28, 2012, Tusa P.C. and Giskan Solotaroff Anderson & Stewart LLP filed a class action on behalf of a plaintiff and other consumers subjected to unlawful debt collection and credit reporting practices by NCO Group, NCO Financial, JPMorgan Chase (NYSE: JPM), Forster & Garbus LLP and others. Plaintiff alleges that NCO and its affiliate law firms commence lawsuits against consumers to collect debts that are not actually owed or and for using deceptive, abusive or harassing collection methods.

A copy of the complaint can be found on Tusa P.C.'s firm website www.tpcnylaw.com.

As alleged in the complaint, Defendants systematically and knowingly violate the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Racketeer Influenced Corrupt Organizations Act, New York General Business Law Section 349 and/or New York Judiciary Law Section 487, by filing collection actions and engaging in harassing debt collection practices, while knowing, or intentionally failing to know, that the consumers do not owe the underlying debt, in whole or in part. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants intentionally do not obtain, or cannot obtain, proof that the consumers actually owe the alleged debt, in whole or in part, before engage in collection efforts that include suing consumers.

NCO Financial was recently the subject of an investigation by nineteen state attorneys' general that resulted in determinations by the Attorneys General that NCO was engaging in debt collection and credit reporting violations. Among the practices targeted by the attorneys general was the continuation of collection efforts by NCO Financial for settled debts.

If you have been a victim of these or similar practices by NCO or others, please contact us by email at info@tpcnylaw.com or on our website www.tpcnylaw.com or by telephone at (631) 407-5100.

Tusa P.C. is boutique law firm representing consumers, borrowers and shareholders in class actions. It has offices in New York City and Long Island, New York.

