UNAUTHORIZED DEBT COLLECTION CALLS TO CELL PHONES AND AUTOMATED DEBT COLLECTION MESSAGES

November 16, 2013.

On November 15, 2013, Tusa P.C. joined others in filing a class action on behalf of two plaintiffs and consumers subjected to unlawful debt collection telephone calls and automated messages by NCO Financial Systems.

A copy of the complaint can be found on Tusa P.C.'s firm website www.tpcnylaw.com.

As alleged in the complaint, NCO Financial violated the federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act by making debt collection calls to consumers' cellular telephones without their prior consent.

On behalf of New York residents, the complaint further alleges that NCO Financial left automated debt collection messages on consumers' home or cellular telephones that did not contain the disclosures required by the New York General Business Law.
