

Press ReleaseINVESTIGATION OF CELLULAR TELEPHONE CALLS MADE TO CUSTOMERS
OF ORANGE & ROCKLAND UTILITIES, ROCKLAND COUNTY ELECTRIC AND PIKE COUNTY LIGHT AND POWER

December 7, 2015.

Tusa P.C. is investigating calls made by Orange & Rockland Utilities, Rockland County Electric and Pike County Light and Power to its current or former utility customers' cell phones. We are also investigating calls made by debt collectors working for Orange & Rockland Utilities, Rockland County Electric and Pike County Light and Power to customers' cellular telephones.

Telephone calls or text messages made to consumers' cellular telephones without their consent may violate the federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA). As reported in Newsday, Tusa P.C. has filed claims against utility companies for allegedly violating consumers' privacy rights protected by the TCPA.

Under the TCPA, it is unlawful to call a cellular telephone using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or pre-recorded voice, unless the consumer has provided their prior express consent to do so.

If you have been a victim of these or similar practices by Orange & Rockland Utilities, Rockland County Electric and Pike County Light or Power or any debt collector hired by Orange & Rockland Utilities, Rockland County Electric and Pike County Light or Power during the past four years, please contact us by email at info@tpcnylaw.com, through our website www.tpcnylaw.com or by telephone at (631) 407-5100.
